Laurel Hill State Park

Looking back to yesteryear’s conservation legacy, participants will visit Laurel Hill State Park, once a National Park Service Recreation Demonstration Area targeted for restoration and reforestation in the 1930s. Enjoy a Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC)-era dinner within Pennsylvania’s most intact CCC camp.

Legacy Fact: Forward-thinking Governor Gifford Pinchot had a plan in place for the CCC boys. As a result, Pennsylvania had the second highest number of camps in the country.

Ohiopyle State Park

What can we do in conservation today to ensure a sustainable future? Ohiopyle State Park has long been a hub for outdoor adventure, a gateway to the Laurel Highlands region, and deeply connected to the community it surrounds. Participants will dine along the iconic Ohiopyle Falls on the Youghiogheny River as we explore the sustainability features and partnerships key for continued park and community success.

Legacy Fact: In 2015, the Ohiopyle State Park Office – Laurel Highlands Visitor Center earned gold-level LEED status and the USGBC Forever Green Award.
